OPLA September AUTO CLASS

with Stacy Hetchler

September 17th & 18th, 2010

STACY HETCHLER from KEY PRO will be back In Springfield with us for our September Auto Class! We had a LOT of fun learning with Stacy last September. The class is well worth it and a must attend if you do any amount of automotive locksmithing or are looking into getting started in automotive locksmithing. The Friday evening class will be held in the Granada meeting room at The Holiday Inn, 2729 N, Glenstone, in Springfield. Stacy recommends that you attend this, as he will be giving an introductory class on auto key making, which is very helpful on Saturday when you actually get to go out and make keys! Saturday we will be carpooling to Rogersville, Mo for the hands on part of the class at Copart.

TO RESERVE A ROOM Call The Holiday Inn, 2729 North Glenstone (on the east side of north Glenstone). Their phone number is: 1-417-865-8600. The Friday Evening meeting, and Saturday morning meet to head to Rogersville, will be held there. Make sure you tell them you are with OPLA to get our discounted room rate of $69.00 Reservations must be made by August 20, 2010.

Our Friday Evening Class will be held Granada Room at the Holiday Inn, 2729 North Glenstone. Class will begin at 7:00pm Sharp.

For our Saturday Class we will meet in the Holiday Inn Lobby at 8:00am. We will leave the Motel no later than 8:30am, earlier if everyone is present, and carpool to Copart Auto in Rogersville, Mo. For an all day hands on auto key making class. Lunch will be your responsibility on Saturday. We will eat somewhere in Rogersville around noon and head back to Copart for the rest of the class.

Our OPLA Business Meeting will be held after the Saturday class, at Cozumel Mexican Restaurant, 110 Dempsey Dr, in Rogersville. I'm (Anna) going to guess between 4:00 and 5:00pm we should be done with class. If you are not planning on attending the Saturday class, but want to be included in the business meeting, please call Anna on Saturday, September 18th, after noon at 620-421-3534 for a better idea on the business meeting time.
